HAPPY

Wishing all of our Fathers and Grandfathers a blessed and very Happy Father's Day!

© J. S. Palloch Co., Inc.

The Ladies of the Altar Society are most grateful and thankful to our Parishioners who brought the many donations and for all those who helped work the Rummage Sale. Also, a big thank you to our high-school youth that helped us by moving and setting up all the tables. We are truly blessed having such a generous parish and your continued support is much appreciated. With your support we happily brought in $1,750.20 from the Rummage Sale and if you have never attended one, our prices can't be beat—where can you buy clothing for 50 cents or household items for a dollar? It's a lot of work and takes an army of volunteers, but it's worth every minute when we are able to help others in our community at large.

We couldn't have accomplished this task if our good parishioners wouldn't have brought all those goodies, and 19 women to sort, stack, hang, etc.. and the good people in our community to come and purchase. Many generous hearts. Praise God!

Have a Safe Summer

Prayers for our parishioners for happy and safe travels during their summer adventures and guide them safely back home!

The Giving Cabinet volunteers:

June 22nd: Marianne Russell, Cathy Maggart and Ginny Trimbach.
Thank You All!
