

The 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle A

A warm welcome to all who are gathered with us this day, we kindly ask that you silence all cell phones or any other electronic devices that you or your children may have brought into the church.

Introduction:

We gather once more seeking the presence of God in our lives. We seek Him in Word and Eucharist and bear witness to him in recognition of the many graces that he has sent into our lives. Let us not forget that we and all other humans on the face of the earth are made in the image and likeness of our God and deserve our respect as we go about our daily routines.

Let us now begin our celebration in song.

Intercessions:

That Pope Frances and all our church leaders will guide our world onto the avenues of peace and harmony, we pray to the Lord.

May all who work the fields be strengthened in body, mind and spirit as the harvest season begins to unfold, we pray to the Lord.

For all who are providing food, shelter and assistance to those displaced by the recent hurricanes, we pray to the Lord.

For all who have been displaced and now have to start their lives anew, we pray to the Lord.

Conclusion: (Fr. Michael)

God of endless mercy, hear our prayers and petitions as they are raised directly to you our Creator, who have so graciously bestowed upon us your love and affection. Amen.
